

Ecca Schools Library Book Request

WMT has been supporting the school libraries in the ECCA schools in Southern Lalitpur for many years. There are few computers in Southern Lalitpur and students rely on the schools' small libraries for reading material. After our visit in September, the schools have sent us a list of books their students have requested.

A full set of books for a school costs approximately £25. If you could buy a book, a set of books or a few books, the school children of Southern Lalitpur will be extremely grateful.
